

How does a Reverse Mortgage effect my government healthcare coverage?

* Line of credit option is the most feasible way to receive reverse mortgage proceeds for individuals using government healthcare coverage.

	MEDICARE	MEDICAID
Description	A nationwide health insurance program for people age 65 or older and people entitled to Social Security disability payments for 2 years or more, regardless of income. (An entitlement program)	A federal government sponsored program that is intended to provide health care and health-related services to low-income individuals. This program is administered by individual states and benefits will vary from state to state. (A form of welfare)
Is Eligibility Effected	No, a reverse mortgage will not effect your Medicare eligibility.	Yes, a reverse mortgage can effect your Medicaid (Medi-Cal) eligibility.
Requirements	N/A	Medicaid (Medi-Cal) eligibility requires applicant to have no more than $2,000 ($3,000 for a couple) in countable assets one day out of the month.
Example	N/A	If applicant draws $4,000 from line of credit and spends it the same calendar month, Medicaid (Medi-Cal) is not effected. Any amount left in their bank account, including liquid resources, exceeding $2,000 ($3,000 for couple) the following calendar month will make the applicant ineligible.

Information, including but not limited to remarks, suggestions, ideas, graphics or other submissions, contained in this document does not create an attorney-client relationship or confidential relationship between you and All Reverse Transactions. Under no circumstances shall All Reverse Transactions be liable for any damages, including incidental, special, consequential, exemplary, multiple or other indirect damages or for lost profits or loss of use damages that result from the use of, or the inability to use, this information contained herein. In no event shall the total liability to you for all damages, losses and causes of action, whether in contract, tort (including, but not limited to, negligence) or otherwise, that result from the use of, or the inability to use, this information contained on this site exceed $1.

